

Photo Credit: PADI

Waccamaw Conference

The Journey of Trash: Pollution to Solution

February 9th 2019

1:00 – 4:00 pm

Horry County Museum
805 Main Street Conway, SC 29526

All are welcome to attend this family-friendly community event highlighting the common sources and impacts of trash in our waterways throughout the Winyah Bay watershed and what individuals can do to help. Explore the museum while visiting the numerous exhibitor booths, student poster session, and presentations! FREE ADMISSION!

Featured Speaker:

Dr. Stefanie Whitmire, Clemson Baruch Institute of Coastal Ecology and Forest Science

Esteemed Panel:

Kelly Thorvalson, S.C. Aquarium Sea Turtle Hospital; Ranger Mike Walker, Huntington Beach State Park; Michelle LaRocco, Georgetown County Environmental Services Division; Michael Hughes, Horry County Solid Waste Authority; Bo Ives, Keep Horry County Beautiful

Learn more at www.winyahivers.org